

NEW ORLEANS ACTIVE TRANSPORTATION SYMPOSIUM

DATE:

November 21st, 2011

6:00pm to 7:30pm

Free and open to the public

LOCATION:

Regional Transportation Management Center
10 Veterans Blvd, New Orleans, LA

SPEAKERS:

Kristen Gisleson-Palmer, City Councilmember, District C -- "New Orleans' Progress Towards a Complete Streets Policy"

Dr. Billy Fields, Assistant Professor of Political Science, Texas State University -- "Establishing New Orleans as a National Leader in Active Transportation: Solidifying Progress, Moving Towards an Active Transportation Culture"

Jennifer Ruley, PE, Urban Planning Specialist and Engineer with the Louisiana Public Health Institute / Technical Advisor to the City of New Orleans – Facilities, Infrastructure and Community Development -- "New Orleans Active Transportation: Where We Are and Where We're Going"

Kathryn Parker, Assistant Director, Prevention Research Center at Tulane University -- "Health Impact of Active Transportation Improvements in New Orleans"

SPONSORED BY:

Regional Planning Commission for Jefferson, Orleans, Plaquemines, St. Bernard and St. Tammany Parishes
Merritt C. Becker, Jr. University of New Orleans Transportation Institute
Bike Easy

For more information, please contact ttolford@uno.edu / 504.280.6516

MERRITT C. BECKER, JR.

UNO TRANSPORTATION INSTITUTE